TRUE HAPPINESS! GOOD HEALTH! CLARITY! PEACE! HARMONY! SPIRITUAL AWAKENING!
CONFIDENCE! BALANCE OF ENERGY! LOVE! MATERIAL PROSPERITY!

These are just some of the things that I, like every other individual, had sought to achieve when I was young. Living the carefree life of a college student, I looked at all these attributes as my birth-right. However, Destiny had another plan for me, one that took me through a roller coaster of emotions. Unhappiness, confusion, lack of confidence, lack of self-love - all of these became my daily companions. I could not understand how to overcome the problems that I was facing, and this led to an increase in stress levels, leading to physical and emotional upheavals on a daily basis.

I was looking for answers to questions that I could not voice to anyone. I turned to spirituality and learnt that all the answers were within me. At the mental level, I understood this. But I felt as though they were locked away behind a door to which I did not have a key. My struggle to find this key one day led me to a workshop to learn Energy Healing. THIS was the turning point of my life.

Brahma Satya Energy Healing came as a ray of Sunshine, illuminating corners of my Soul that I did not know existed. With regular practice, I felt a change within me; my physical problems (Beginning symptoms of Multiple Sclerosis, & stage one of emphysema) disappeared, I felt energized and rejuvenated. I found the strength and confidence within me to bring about a much-needed change in my life. Everything that I was striving for suddenly seemed within my reach.

I imbibed the principles of gratitude and love taught in Brahma Satya and felt an immense flow of peace within me. Seeing the difference within me, I realized that this was exactly what I had been looking for. I wanted to help every individual that I met with this Divine energy, and that is what motivated me to become a Trainer & Healer. It is my dream to spread this dynamic knowledge that can empower all individuals to reach to their potential and be exactly who they were meant to be, in all their power and magnificence.

The Vision of Brahma Satya Energy Healing is to improve the quality of life and bring forth happiness, peace, spiritual awakening and material prosperity through spiritual healing, consultations, guided meditations and training workshops related to body healing, mind evolution and soul ascension.

System Brahma Satya began its journey on Aug.7, 1997 when its founder Deepak Hardikar, (also known by his spiritual name Agnapushpanjal), a skeptic engineer, was blessed with the realization of this Divine knowledge. His experience enlightened him to understand revolutionary concepts of the universe, and various aspects of healing in a manner unheard of before. His practical and skeptical nature drove him to further research and practice these concepts until he was convinced that this phenomenal system was truly unique and should be experienced by each and every individual in the Universe.

He went on to develop various simple healing techniques covering all aspects of this knowledge. This resulted in the various streams of System Brahma Satya.

"Brahma Satya" meaning "The Universal Truth", provides a practical applied approach to Spiritual science. Its simplicity and result oriented workshops make it easy for individuals to find solutions to every problem in their lives.

The Vision of Brahma Satya Energy Healing is to improve the quality of life and bring forth happiness, peace, spiritual awakening and material prosperity through spiritual healing, consultations, guided meditations and training workshops related to body healing, mind evolution and soul ascension. While Brahma Satya uplifts individuals in spiritual terms, it also improves the quality of their life without calling for any changes to be implemented by the individual. A daily practice of the healing methods taught during the workshop is all that is required.

For this, it follows a purposeful practical path applying the highest levels of spirituality so as to provide:

- a. Solutions that enable one to address problems related to the body, mind, and spirit.
- b. Solutions transcending barriers of distance or physical presence.
- c. Solutions that heal astrological effects, business, house, relationships, and even karmic issues.

For the sake of general understandings, Brahma Satya could be considered as a wholistic system that utilizes the divine energy, offers multiple expansions at all functioning levels for any individual in every aspect of the individual's life, including, of course, the level of physical health concerning freedom from ailments. Brahma Satya represents a path to attain the highest levels of spirituality in an absolutely simple manner, very much possible for each and everyone; a path to growth which does not demand any change in the individual's life styles, that is, this path is unconditional.
