PRISIM – The Healing Temple

Do you know that any ailment you have is visible in your Aura for atleast 2 years before it actually manifests in your physical body?

What is the AURA?

An aura is perceived to be a field of subtle, luminous radiation surrounding a person or object like the halo or aureola in religious art. Scientifically, aura can be described as a bio-magnetic field of energy which surrounds an individual. It is said that all objects and all living things manifest such an aura.

The aura is often seen as a mix of fine coloured frequencies where each colour defines its own individual nature and characteristics. The vibration of this aura is very fine and subtle so we need very acute instruments to detect it. Only some people have an inborn intuitive ability to see the aura with the naked eye, but most of us have a latent psychic potential to train ourselves not only to see the aura but also to interpret the different colours and shapes in the aura which can reveal a lot of unsaid information.

In the olden days, spiritually advanced individuals like the Rishis and Yogis could identify all that an individual was undergoing just by looking at them.

However, with the passing of time, there are very few individuals who have been able to master this ability completely. Thus, this psychic sense has been replaced with the use of electro-magnetic sensors that can give a numerical reading of the energy that surrounds us. This reading, when entered into the corresponding computer program, gives us a picture of the colours that are visible in the different areas and layers of the aura.

In the olden days, spiritually advanced individuals like the Rishis and Yogis could identify all that an individual was undergoing just by looking at them.

Our aura consists of various layers of bio-field energy that is connected to our physical health, emotional health, mental health and spiritual health. The colours seen within the aura can tell us not only that a particular area of an individual's body is undergoing a problem, but also a considerable amount about his / her personality characteristics and the way they interact with people and the environment around them. Simple solutions can then be suggested depending on the severity of the problems visible in the aura.

The aura can also indicate if the problem is just a temporary physical problem or a deep-rooted issue which is more connected with mental or emotional outlook. At times, it can also indicate if the problems coming our way are due to planetary imbalances or negativity in the environment. Whatever the reasons for the blockage may be, if these are left to remain in the aura for long periods of time, they manifest as ailments in the physical body.

AURA CLEANSING

The good news is that once these problems have been identified, they can be removed directly from the aura by cleansing the aura using Brahma Satya Energy healing. Aura Cleansing takes only 40 - 45 minutes per session and for most individuals, 3-4 sessions are enough to clear the aura, removing all blockages and not only cleansing the aura but also energizing the chakras with positive energy, ensuring that the aura is strong and healthy.

A healthy aura consists of bright colours and allows only positive energy to flow into your chakras, making sure that you remain healthy in every aspect of your life - physical, emotional, mental, material and spiritual. It helps you to function to the best of your ability and empowers you to express yourself effectively, have good relationships, and attain peace and happiness in your daily life.

AURA CLEANSING USING CRYSTALS

This Auric clarity can be magnified by the use of Crystal stones during healing. Crystals of the correct colour, when placed on the chakra positions during a healing, can pull out all blocked energy and make the process of Aura Cleansing much faster and more effective.

Thus, an Aura Scan can help identify issues, strengths and weaknesses, personality traits, and increase self-awareness. It can also, to an extent, predict problems that may arise in the near future, which can be prevented by regular Aura Cleansing sessions. These sessions are also extremely beneficial to individuals, as they make one more receptive to a regular flow of positivity and good health.
